

Equal Pay Webinar Series

APRIL - JUNE 2026

- Understand equal pay measurements and why it is a business priority
- Learn from companies how to assess, improve and report on equal pay
- Define an action pathway to close gender pay gaps

ABOUT THIS SERIES

Equal pay for work of equal value is a fundamental human right—and an increasing governance, compliance and accountability priority for companies worldwide. Despite progress, global gender pay gaps remain at approximately 20%, reflecting persistent structural inequalities.

At the same time, regulatory momentum is accelerating. Directives across the globe, including the EU Pay Transparency Directive (EU), are raising expectations for companies to strengthen pay transparency, reporting, and remediation—particularly for multinational employers and companies operating across value chains.

Against this backdrop, companies need practical guidance to move from commitment to implementation and accountability.

UN Women's Global Secretariat for the Women's Empowerment Principles and the EQUAL-SALARY Foundation are organizing a 3-part global webinar series designed to help companies understand the importance of equal pay and how to take action to close the gender pay gap.

WHY JOIN

- 🗓️ 3 webinars, each diving deeper into frameworks, actions and examples
- 🗓️ Peer learning from companies approaches to assessing and addressing gender pay gaps
